

Sep 20, 2015

Fall in love with art in Oshawa

Seventy artists from Durham showing at Camp Samac

DurhamRegion.com

OSHAWA -- Get a jump on seeing fall colours in Oshawa.

The Oshawa Art Association presents its 34th annual Fall Art Festival, a show and sale running Oct. 2 to 4. If the leaves haven't changed yet, the indoor setting for the show will have splashes of colour everywhere.

“Exceptional works of art in watercolour, acrylic, oil, pencil, pastel and pottery, all created by 70 artists from Oshawa, Whitby, Bowmanville, Pickering, Uxbridge, Cannington, Ajax, Port Perry, Brooklin, Courtice, Newcastle, Enniskillen and Blackstock,” says the OAA’s Anne Labelle-Johnson, of what visitors can expect. “We have a catered lunch counter and be sure to check out the hourly draws for fabulous prizes donated by the artists, if you make a small donation.”

Oshawa Art Association

Sabrina Byrnes/Metroland

Rosemary Jenkins is a potter who is taking part in the Oshawa Art Association's Fall Art Festival, October 2-4 at Camp Samac in Oshawa. September 9, 2015

There is no admission charge to the show, which runs at Camp Samac from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. each day.

Camp Samac is between Simcoe Street and Ritson Road, just south of Conlin Road. Enter via Conlin, just west of Ritson.

Learn more about the OAA at www.oshawaartassociation.com .